

Don Harrison

In 1986 I escaped from London and moved to Burwell. The move was partly because of health issues. From day one I found Clunch useful and going to Church helped me meet others. When the Day Centre first opened, I quickly joined. I helped at Burwell Village College with Computers. I do voluntary work at Centre Peace. I became a Parish Councillor in 2002.